DIRECTOR'S NOTES

This play is dedicated to the memory of our dear friend Brenda Higham.

In a last desperate attempt to resurrect his career in the CID, Inspector Frost re-opens the case that ruined him - a kidnap and possible murder he failed to solve some years before.

With a new piece of evidence, he returns to the village in which the disappearance occurred. Where he was once a welcome guest, he now finds the villagers are no longer interested in reliving the past and in seeing old faces. As it becomes increasingly apparent he is facing a conspiracy of silence and hostility, he enlists the assistance of a local ambitious journalist to help him with his investigations.

The guilty and terrible secrets of those who have spent years shouldering the burden of the truth is finally resolved in a series of startling revelations, much to the Inspector's horror and the surprise of the audience.

Jonathan Coupe

The play is set in the residents' lounge of the Cresswell Arms during a weekend in September.

Act I Scene I: Friday evening.

Act I Scene II: Friday night.

Interval: Refreshments will be served in room 2.

Act II Scene I: Saturday morning.

Act II Scene II: Saturday afternoon.

ABOUT US

Canterbury Players, originating in Davyhulme, Greater Manchester, was formed in 1949 and is affiliated to Greater Manchester Drama Federation, Trafford Arts Association and National Operatic And Drama Association.

Until recently, most of our performances were presented on stage in the hall at Canterbury Road Junior School in Davyhulme, and occasionally at other locations in the area for other events such as play readings.

However, 2007 finds us at our new home at Davyhulme (Wesley) Methodist Church which is located in Brook Road, Flixton.

Our March 2007 presentation "Holiday Snap" by Michael Pertwee and John Chapman was a great success resulting in a fantastic review in The Messenger 29/03/2007 and we're sure this one will be just as good!

JOIN US

Canterbury Players welcomes new members, so whether you wish to act, produce, direct or get involved backstage there is a place for you in the group. You can, however, just take part in our fundraising and social events such as quiz nights, BBQs, trips etc. In any case, member subscription is just £10 per year.

Visit our website or contact an official for more details.
